

Taking work leave?

When you go on family, medical, disability or maternity/paternity leave, Health Advocate is always available to help with healthcare and insurance-related issues as well as provide emotional support. You'll be free to focus on yourself and your loved ones.

A Personal Health Advocate can help

- Clarify a diagnosis, research the latest treatments, and if needed, find a doctor for a second opinion.
- Locate the right doctors, hospitals and other providers. We'll even make the appointments.
- Research caregiver and community resources such as in-home care and eldercare services.
- Coordinate between your doctors and health plan, including helping with paperwork to resolve a disability issue.
- Find affordable options for durable medical or other special equipment.
- Address billing or claims issues.

We support the whole family

Our services are available to employees, spouses, dependents, parents and parents-in-law at no cost to you.
